

4 Year Commissioner

George Holmes

George Holmes

George Holmes is the incumbent in this year's election as he is seeking re-election to the four year commission chair.

Holmes has been instrumental in the obtaining water rights from the proposed Jordanelle Reservoir for area farmers.

He has been anxious to seek development into the valley as long as it is for the betterment of our communities.

During the past four years Holmes has kept all four promises that he made to the public. He has promised to keep government small and responsive to the people.

Holmes has taken a stand on preserving the private property owners rights, and helping protect such rights whenever possible.

While serving as commissioner, George has encouraged private enterprise and development. He has served on the Planning Commission and has always sought the best for the counties development. His efforts to bring the Mayflower Resort into the county to bouy up the tax base have been done so with a clear mind and sure judgement. Holmes has made every effort to keep the mining interests and the development interests intact.

Holmes has been a life long resident of Wasatch County. He owns and operates the Cedar View Dairy Farm in Lake Creek, and knows what the needs of the agriculture, water user and businessmen are.

years, served in the U.S. Army and as a missionary in the Northern States.

I have been a dairyman all of adult life on the farm where I grew up. I am currently serving the dairy industry as a member of the Utah Dairy Commission which administers funds for the promotion of the Dairy Industry in the State of Utah. I have been a Midway Booster and have served on the Board of Directors several different times, because Midway is important to me.

My first love has always been working with the youth. I have been involved in scouting for 40 years. I have also coached both the league baseball and basketball teams for a number of years. My interest and involvement with the young people of this county is one of the main reasons for my interest in the efficient and successful operation of our school district.

I was recently appointed to serve the remainder of an expired term on the School Board. Since this appointment I have learned a great deal about the internal workings of the School District. I feel like I am just beginning to be functional and somewhat knowledgeable in
